

Session 3: January 5 – February 23, 2025

10:00 am

Option #1 Hosea: UnFaithfulness

Teachers: Vladimir Markevich (Pastoral Intern)

Location: Upper Room

Summary: Approaching the prophets in the Old Testament can be confusing and, at times, seem irrelevant to our lives today. This is especially true when we turn to the minor prophets. After all, why choose the "minor league" when the "major league" is available? In this class, we will discover the prophet Hosea, working through both the prophetic literature and its fulfillment in the New Testament. But more importantly, we will uncover the heart of God behind these prophecies, and we will respond to the calling: "Let us know; let us press on to know the Lord." (Hosea 6:3)

Option #2 Searching for Jesus

Teachers: Pastor Dallas Rempel & Jeremy Saxby

Location: Fireside Room

Summary: Have you recently begun a search for Jesus or are you a new Christian? Are you brand new to this whole church thing? Do you have questions about Christianity? Then this class is for you. In this class we will do a basic introduction to the Bible - what it is and what it's all about. We will talk about how you can have a personal relationship with Jesus and become a part of his church. We also hope to hear your story and talk about your questions regarding Christianity. We hope you will join us!

Option #3 God = Treasure ⇒ For All Peoples

Teachers: D. Evans & Matthew van Mulligen

Location: East Hall

Summary: "Treasures like God are not to be hoarded." God's good news is for all peoples, yet too often it has been hoarded and not shared with those who have never had a chance to hear it. In this class, we will look at examples of the early church, and how they DID share this treasure broadly with the peoples of their world. We will look at different ways they did this (not everyone was a Paul or Barnabas!), and prayerfully consider how we might apply these examples to our lives. If you are one who sees God as your treasure, worthy of worship by all peoples, then this class is for you.

Option #4 English Learner's Bible Study: The Gospel of Luke

Teacher: Various Teachers

Location: Library

Summary: In this class students will have the chance to work on their English skills while we study the Bible together. This year we will study a book of the Bible called Luke. This book was written so that one of Luke's friends could know the true story about Jesus. Please join us as we explore this book together.
