Option #2 Seeking God's Wisdom

Teachers: John Kuang & Wade Robertson

Location: Upper Room

Summary: As soon as we hear the word "wisdom," some old pithy sayings might come to mind, and perhaps even a biblical proverb or two. But generally, we find that our wisdom is limited and perhaps even unbiblical. Thankfully, God has not left us to our own devices in this regard, but has given us the Bible as His source of practical and lasting wisdom. In this class, we will study from the Old and New Testaments to pursue God's wisdom, which enables us to live life the way God intended. Optional reading for this class is A.W. Tozer's The Wisdom of God ($23).

Option #3 James: A Call to Spiritual Maturity

Teacher: Pastor Lindsay Anderson

Location: East Hall

Summary: James is a short and unique book but its message is powerful and effective. In its creative and image-heavy examples, James calls believers to a deeper and persevering spiritual maturity within the body of Christ. While James was one of the first books of the New Testament, the issues he felt were pressing in those moments retain their significance for life as a Christian today. He showed pastoral compassion for people living in a world opposed to God, all the while instructing the believers to live faithfully to Christ at all times. Join us as we take a deep dive through the wisdom found in the book of James.

Option #4 English Learner's Bible Study: The Gospel of Luke

Teacher: Various Teachers

Location: Library

Summary: In this class students will have the chance to work on their English skills while we study the Bible together. This year we will study a book of the Bible called Luke. This book was written so that one of Luke's friends could know the true story about Jesus. Please join us as we explore this book together.
